General feedback (5 points):

- Topic was explained well and accessibly
- Included information from the text
- Also included author's interpretation, and connection to real-world issues and larger implications
- Could possible include more analysis throughout
- Some sources featured in the list of references are never cited in-text

Overall assessment (excellent, good, needs improvement):

Excellent - Overall this student did an excellent job constructing an article based on the conducted study. Although there were some technical errors, such as the missing citations, they did not take away from the work that was done. I might pepper more analysis throughout the text in order to make it less of a summary of the work, but it was not overwhelmingly or solely summarizing. The author's connection to themselves in the rationale tied everything together very well and was also informative.
