General feedback (5 points):

Your chosen topic was very interesting, and I liked how you stated the main finding of the research in the beginning and then broke down the ideas. I see you have defined some of the terminology, but I would suggest reading over and try to define term or explain idea like orthophosphate, hydrothermally, oxidized since we are focusing on general public in this writing. Also, consider expanding more on the biology component of this topic or the revealed finding. Overall, your writing was thoughtful and easy to follow, I enjoyed reading and learning.

Overall assessment (excellent, good, needs improvement):
