General feedback (5 points):

 This paper is clearly written for people with very little background knowledge - every term that may be new to readers or topic-specific is defined which is very helpful, and the paper itself is easy to read and understand with little background knowledge. The paper is cohesive and explains its topic on meditation wellness well.

 Depending on the formality of the writing you want to have, you may want to avoid "we" and other first-person terms as they are uncommon in scientific or formal writing. Also, I would suggest reading over the paper one more time to see if there are sentences that could be edited to flow better or be less stilted.

 The citations seem to be appropriately done both in-text and at the end of the paper.

 The rationale behind writing this paper is clear and straightforward!

Overall assessment (excellent, good, needs improvement): Excellent
This paper is very well done and there is a clear reasoning behind why it was written.
