General feedback (5 points):

I think you did a really good job outlining the paper topic and why it's important- the introductory paragraph is really great at explaining the larger societal context of red algae, which is really nice. Great citations. Also really accessibly written- there's not really any jargon or super complexly worded explanations, so it's easy to read while still being very informative. I do think it would be helpful to note that HGT refers to horizontal gene transfer and maybe explain more about what the intertidal zone is. Overall, super great!

Overall assessment (excellent, good, needs improvement): Excellent
