

Mid-Term Paper Rubric

	Unsatisfactory	Marginal Satisfactory	Satisfactory
Paper Requirements (17 points)	Student addressed only a couple components of the assignment. However, responses to the questions were unclear and were indicative of a lack of/ limited understanding of trauma in the context of their field agency. 8 points	Student addressed between 3-5 components of the assignment. Responses to some questions (at least 4) were clear and demonstrated an understanding of trauma within the context of their field agency, other sections lacked clarity. 12 points	Student addressed all seven components of the assignment. Student's response demonstrated clarity and understanding of the trauma within the context of their field placements with minor discrepancies. 17 points
Submission (2 points)	Paper was submitted after the deadline without prior approval. 0 points	Paper was submitted after the extension deadline without prior approval. 1 point	The paper was submitted on time. 2 points
Organization of Paper (5 points)	Paper lacked use of headings and subheadings, hence coherent organization and structure was not demonstrated. 0 points	Inconsistencies in the use of clear headings and subheadings to demonstrate coherent organization and structure. 3 points	Paper included use of clear headings and subheadings to demonstrate coherent organization and structure. 5 points
Mechanics (3 points)	Writing lacks clarity and is riddled with grammatical and typographical errors. 1 point	Writing is clear and cogent but contained between 3-5 grammatical and typographical errors. 2 points	Writing is clear and cogent and included two or less grammatical and typographical errors. 3 points
APA formatting (3 points)	Paper was not formatted to meet APA 7th edition guidelines. 0 points	Paper was partially formatted to meet APA 7th edition guidelines. 2 points	Paper was formatted to meet APA 7th edition guidelines, with no more than 2 errors. 3 points