

Non-Intensive First-Year Chinese Exam I(Total: 100 points)*Instructor: Dr. Ying Liu

Pledge: I accept full responsibility under the Bryn Mawr Honor Code for my conduct on this exam.

Name (Chinese) : _____

Name (English): _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

1. Choose the vowels/simple finals that you hear. You may listen to each recording only once. ($1 \times 4 = 4$)
2. Please type the vowels/finals that you hear. Due to the keyboard constraint, please use “v” for “ü”. You may listen to each recording only once. ($1 \times 6 = 6$)
3. Choose the consonants/initials that you hear. You may listen to each recording only once. ($1 \times 12 = 12$)
4. Please type the consonant / initial that you hear. Please do not include any vowels/finals. You may listen to each recording only once. ($1 \times 12 = 12$)
5. Choose the compound vowels/ compound finals that you hear. You may listen to each recording only once. ($1 \times 6 = 6$)
6. Write down the tones that you hear. Use the numbers 1-4 for the four tones, and 0 for neutral tone. Please do not include any space or punctuation between the two numbers. You may listen to the recording only once. ($2 \times 8 = 16$)
7. Choose the words that you hear. Please pay attention to the initials, finals and tones. You may listen to the recording only once. ($2 \times 10 = 20$)
8. Listen to the instructor read the classroom expressions. Write them in pinyin with tone marks and translate these expressions into English. Take a picture of your response and upload it here. You may listen to each recording for up to 3 times. ($4 \times 6 = 24$)

This is the end of Exam I. Thank you!