

ESEM: Scheduling Times for Individual Conferences:

During the semester each student will have five individual conferences, each about 20 minutes long. In order to try to get the schedule for these conferences set up, the following time slots of thirty minutes are currently available. Please circle ALL the listed time slots in which you would be available to meet, as far as you can determine from your current schedule of courses and other activities. Then on the back of this page list the days and time(s) (if any) from your circled selections that you would WANT to meet if you could choose to do so. Please return this form in class on Tuesday, September 8. Then, hopefully, from these available times I can choose a time for us to schedule our five meetings.
