

GRADING RUBRIC

Students can expect their written assignment to make up half of their overall grade. Both ARTD and PE students can expect to complete all Journals to successfully pass this course.

WRITING ASSIGNMENTS

I am grading your writing assignments based on a four-point system

4 points (A)

- Demonstrates honest self-assessment
- Clearly summarizes their knowledge
- Questions previous ideas and forms new understandings
- Full sentences with no grammatical errors

3 points (B)

- Demonstrates honest self-assessment
- Clearly summarizes their knowledge
- Questions previous ideas and forms new understandings
- Full sentences with few grammatical errors

2 points (C)

- Demonstrates honest self-assessment
- Somewhat clear summation
- No questioning or forming new understandings
- Few complete sentences with many grammatical errors

1 point (D/F)

- No self-assessment
- Unclear summation
- No questioning or forming new understandings
- Incomprehensible

Since this course is a course is largely movement-based, attendance is half of your overall grade for this course. Attendance is a MUST to successfully pass this course.

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance is essential to individual and collective learning. The below serves as general guidelines, but grading is ultimately up to instructor discretion.

ARTD (Graded):

Twice-weekly courses–

- 3 absences without grade impact; grades will be affected after 3 absences.
- Students may miss up to 5 classes and still pass the course.
- Beyond these limits, students may receive no credit or fail and may no longer be permitted to attend class when absence limits are reached.

PE (Pass/Fail):

Twice-weekly courses–

- 3 absences = 2 credits
- 4-5 absences = 1 credit
- 5 absences = NCR (student may no longer be allowed in the course)
